In the State of Haryana.

Memo. No. 22/45-2017 CI(4)

Dated, Panchkula, the 15-3-17

Subject: - Instructions regarding Extension Lecturers.

Please refer to this office letter No. 22/224- 2016 CI(4) dated 17.11.2016 (Copy enclosed) on the subject cited above.

It was informed vide letter under reference that the extension lecturers may not be relieved till further orders. Meanwhile, the posting orders of newly appointed Assistant Professors were issued. Now, some Principals are approaching this office for clarification regarding extension lecturers.

It is intimated that if there is sufficient workload in the college even after joining of newly appointed Assistant Professors, the extension lecturers may be allowed to deliver the lectures. In case the remaining workload is less, then extension lecturers may be relieved in following manner: -

1. First, who does not fulfil the qualifications as prescribed by UGC/State Govt, should be relieved. Such orders should be issued mentioning the decision given by Hon'ble Punjab and Haryana High Court, Chandigarh in CWP No. 16975 of 2014- Rita Tandon & others versus State of Haryana & others.

2. Thereafter, if the remaining Extension Lecturers are more than the remaining workload, the junior may be relieved as per Last-In-First-Go Formula. The fact regarding decreased workload may be mentioned in such orders.

However, if an extension lecturer is protected by any court order, then clarification may be sought from this office in relevant matter.
